

Internal Regulations

Malikassociation – Family Pension Unit

Article 1 – Purpose

These internal regulations establish the rules of community life within the family pension managed by Malikassociation, in order to ensure a respectful, safe, and friendly living environment for all residents.

Article 2 – Target group

The family pension mainly hosts young adults, of legal age, wishing to benefit from stable housing and social, educational, and community support.

Article 3 – Financial contribution

The financial contribution is set at €160 per month per resident.

Payment must be made no later than the 5th of each month.

Any delay or unjustified non-payment may result in recovery procedures or, as a last resort, termination of the accommodation contract.

Article 4 – Respect for the premises

Each resident undertakes to maintain their room and shared spaces in good condition.

Deliberate damage or neglect will result in repair charges.

The premises must remain clean, tidy, and respectful of the neighborhood.

Article 5 – Community life

Shared meals and collective activities are encouraged to foster conviviality.

Each resident must respect the peace of others (no noise after 10:00 pm).

The use of alcohol, drugs, or any illegal activity is strictly prohibited.

Article 6 – Rights and duties of residents

Residents have a personal room or space, and access to sanitary facilities and common areas.

They commit to respecting community life, the dignity, and the freedom of others.

Violent, discriminatory, or disrespectful behavior is forbidden.

Article 7 – Visits

External visits are allowed within reasonable hours and without disturbing the household's peace.

Overnight stays by outsiders are prohibited unless exceptionally authorized by the management.

Article 8 – Safety

Smoking inside the buildings is prohibited (non-smoking areas).

Emergency exits and safety installations must remain accessible at all times.

Any incident must be immediately reported to the management.

Article 9 – Support

The family pension offers social and educational support to help young adults build autonomy and integration.

Residents agree to participate, as far as possible, in the proposed activities.

Article 10 – Sanctions

In case of violation of these regulations:

1. An oral or written reminder will be given.
2. In case of repetition, a written warning will be issued.
3. In case of serious misconduct (violence, repeated non-payment, drug use, etc.), management may terminate the accommodation contract.

Article 11 – Acceptance

Each resident must read and sign these internal regulations.

Signature implies full acceptance of the stated rules.
